Description

Henry is a deliveryman from the land of Crath. The roads in Crath have been destroyed, and it is Henry's job to deliver the supplies needed to fix King Alexander's palace. In the meantime, he must use his trusty grappling hook to make his way to the palace. Help Henry navigate through various terrains in this brand new 2D-Platformer game.
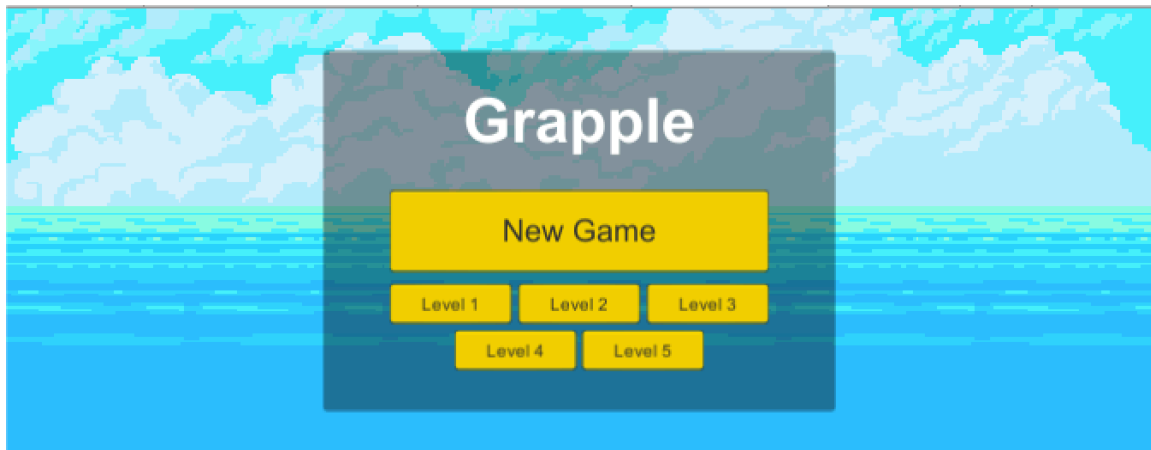

Features

Use the grapple hook to latch onto floating blocks to swing from one platform to another. The hook can also be used to pull objects to a specific location. Navigate through various obstacles to reach your destination.
